

Meet Danielle & Michael

Thank you for taking the time to learn more about us. We admire your strength and courage as you explore the best path for you and your baby. Please know that no matter what you decide, we support you and are grateful you're here.

About Us

We're Danielle and Michael - a fun-loving couple who believe laughter, kindness, and family are at the heart of a happy life. Whether we're exploring a new city, catching a Broadway show, or having a cozy night at home cooking and watching movies, we love simply being together.

Our story began in 2009 when we met while working at a law firm. Friendship turned to love, and after a few years of dating, we were engaged in 2014 and married in 2015. Over the years, our bond has only deepened, and we are so excited to grow our family through adoption.

Travel is a big part of our lives. From Washington, D.C. to Greece, we love discovering new places - and we can't wait to share those adventures with a child. Believe it or not, we've never been to Disney World! We're excited to experience that magical first trip as a family.

Meet Danielle

Danielle is warm, creative, and full of heart. She grew up attending Catholic school and studied Musical Theater and Voice in college while working to support herself. She now works as a unit clerk in a hospital, where her caring nature shines. Danielle finds joy in music, theater, and spending time with loved ones. Becoming a parent is something she's dreamed about for a long time, and she's ready to share her love and creativity with a child.

Meet Michael

Michael is outgoing, kind, and steady - the type of person everyone feels comfortable around. He went to public school and later earned a degree in Communications from a Catholic college, where he also worked at the campus radio station. He now works as a claims adjuster. Michael enjoys gaming, working out, and making Danielle laugh. He's excited to become a dad and looks forward to the everyday joys of parenthood - from bedtime stories to backyard games.

Our Families

Family means everything to us. Danielle comes from a close-knit family. Her parents, married for over 40 years, live nearby, as do her sister Jenna and brother-in-law Justin. Danielle helped raise her goddaughter Julia, who is now in her 20s, and was recently named godmother to her cousin's daughter. Everyone is over-the-moon excited for Danielle to become a mom - this child will be the first grandchild on her side, and the love (and toys!) are already waiting.

Michael comes from a big, lively family. His parents have also been married for over 40 years, and he has three sisters - all of whom live close by with their husbands and children. Family gatherings are full of fun, food, and cheer - especially with eight nieces and nephews running around. The whole family takes vacations together and shares a deep bond. Everyone can't wait to welcome another little cousin!

Our Home & Community

We live in a warm and welcoming condo that we're proud to call home. We're currently renovating our kitchen and getting ready to turn our extra room into a nursery. Our town is charming and diverse, with a great local elementary school, playgrounds within walking distance, and a nearby lake for summer fun. There are always cultural events, family-friendly activities, and delicious food from around the world to enjoy.

We're also blessed with a wide circle of friends, both local and across the country. Many have young children, and we're so excited to watch our future child grow up surrounded by love, laughter, and playmates.

A Note from Our Hearts...

Thank you for taking a glimpse into our lives. We can only imagine the emotions you are experiencing and the love you have for your child. If you choose us, please know that your baby will be cherished beyond measure, raised in a home full of warmth, stability, and joy.

Whatever your decision, we wish you peace, clarity, and love on your journey. You will always have our deepest respect.

With love and gratitude,
Danielle & Michael
